ADAM SCOTT, CHARLES HOWELL III AND BRIAN DAVIS COMMIT TO 2010 TRAVELERS CHAMPIONSHIP PLAYER FIELD

CROMWELL, Conn., June 7, 2010 – The Travelers Championship announces three more exciting commitments to the 2010 player field. Adam Scott, Charles Howell III and Brian Davis will all be at TPC River Highlands in Cromwell, Conn. when the tournament begins two weeks from today. Scott will be making his first appearance at the Travelers Championship, while Howell and Davis will be competing for a sixth time.

“We are very excited to announce the addition of three more top players to our field,” said Travelers Championship Tournament Director Nathan Grube. “Having Adam Scott play in his first Travelers Championship and Charles Howell III competing in the event for the first time since Travelers became a title sponsor, speaks volumes for the growth of our event. Also, having Brian Davis who has two runner-up finishes in 2010 only adds to the strength of our field.”

Australian Adam Scott, winner of the 2010 Valero Texas Open, has seven career victories on the PGA TOUR and is currently ranked 22nd in the FedExCup standings. Scott became the youngest winner ever of THE PLAYERS Championship in 2004 at the age of 23.

Two-time PGA TOUR winner and 2001 PGA TOUR Rookie of the Year Charles Howell III has earned three top-10 finishes in 2010, with his best finish being a tie for fourth at the Waste Management Phoenix Open in late-February. Howell has made 11 of 14 cuts this season and is currently ranked 41st in the FedExCup standings.

Currently ranked 26th in the FedExCup standings, Brian Davis has earned two runner-up finishes in 2010, with the most notable occurring at the Verizon Heritage in April. Davis finished second behind Jim Furyk after calling a penalty on himself during the first playoff hole.

These three players join a rapidly growing player field that already includes Kenny Perry, Stewart Cink, Hunter Mahan, Vijay Singh, Rickie Fowler, Justin Rose, David Toms and John Daly. The Travelers Championship is the PGA TOUR's only early summer stop in the Northeast and will be held June 21 – 27, 2010, at TPC River Highlands in Cromwell, Conn. About the Travelers Championship

The Travelers Championship will be held June 21 - 27, 2010, at TPC River Highlands in Cromwell, Conn. As the only PGA TOUR event in the Northeast in early summer, the Travelers Championship is one of the region's premier sporting events. The tournament proudly supports the PGA TOUR Tradition of Giving Back by donating 100 percent of net proceeds to two designated charities, The Hole in the Wall Gang Camp, serving children facing serious illness, and the Greater Hartford Jaycees, a leadership development and community service organization. The event is sponsored by Travelers, a leading provider of property casualty insurance for home, auto and business. Travelers has been doing business in the community for nearly a century and a half, and today has more than 6,000 employees in the Greater Hartford area. The Official Property Casualty Insurer of the PGA TOUR, Travelers has been a sponsor of this event each year since its inception in 1952, becoming title sponsor in 2007.
