

Young gun victorious in Lake Of Isles PGA Pro-Scratch

North Stonington, CT (Oct. 25, 2011) – Kyle Bilodeau, 26, of The Hartford GC and amateur partner, KJ Camera, 25, extend their lead after day one, shooting a two-day total of 10-under-par 134 to win the 2011 Lake of Isles PGA Pro-Scratch Invitational.

In the first day of play, Bilodeau and Camera fired a six-under-par 66 which held a two-stroke lead over Mike Martin of Clubs To Go and amateur partner, Scott Farrell. However, following brutal conditions today, many teams were not able to shoot under par, in fact, only two teams did in Bilodeau and Camera, and Martin and Farrell. Their 1-under-par, a very impressive score today, was not enough to take the lead from Bilodeau and Camera who fired a four-under-par to clench the title.

"Our goal today was just come out and make pars," says Bilodeau. "It was a good day of golf even though it was a little windy."

"We had some good birdies today," continues Camera. "And made some putts that we didn't expect. I couldn't imagine anything else I would rather be doing today, than playing golf."

That attitude, solid ball striking, and putt dropping is what solidified their first place finish of today on the North Course at Lake of Isles. As the winning amateur of the event, Camera took home the first place prize of $500 with Bilodeau, the winning professional taking home $1,000.
